

The Gallery at York Hall Celebrates Fall Arts in September and October

September 1, 2017

The Gallery at York Hall is hosting several special exhibits and events to celebrate Fall Arts. In September, look for a “Pottery” exhibit featuring the amazing and popular work of artist Keith Shamburger. October will feature the opening of the “Yorktown Art” exhibit highlighting Historian Chris Bonin.

There are several other art demonstrations and author meet-and-greets taking place both months, including two American History writers who will be signing books on Yorktown Day.

- September 10: Watercolor Art Demo by Hazel Camp
- September 17: Woodturning Demo by Tom Duke
- September 24: Wildlife Photography Art Stroll by David Mitchell

- October 19: Author Jenny L. Cote: The Voice, the Revolution & the Key
Alan R. Hoffman: Lafayette in America in 1824 & 1825: Journal of a Voyage to the United States

- October 22: Author Michael Cecere: The Invasion of Virginia 1781

The Gallery at York Hall is also proud to participate in the Yorktown Art Stroll event on Sunday, September 24, with extended hours that day, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. featuring an exhibit of the wildlife photography of David Mitchell.

Customers who mention “Arts Month” the entire month of September will get a 10 percent discount off their entire purchase. It’s the perfect time to do some holiday shopping and see truly unique gifts. You’ll find one-of-a-kind pieces including quilts, handwoven baskets, stained glass, jewelry, and more. Need another reason to shop? Part of every purchase goes back into the community to help support arts and performing arts, 30 percent to be exact!

While fall is an exciting time of year, more than 300 local artists are represented year-round in the Gallery at York Hall, 301 Main Street in Historic Yorktown. It’s a cooperative effort between the Celebrate Yorktown Committee and York County. Hours are Tuesday - Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Sundays from 1 to 4 p.m. Admission is free.

For more information, call the Gallery at York Hall at (757) 890-4490 or visit www.visitYorktown.org for a complete listing of remaining 2017 exhibits.
