

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Our Mission

“York County Fire and Life Safety and its integrated divisions...

exist to provide protection and safety to our community, to prevent emergencies when possible, and to minimize pain, suffering, and loss when emergencies do occur.”

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Southern
District
Station

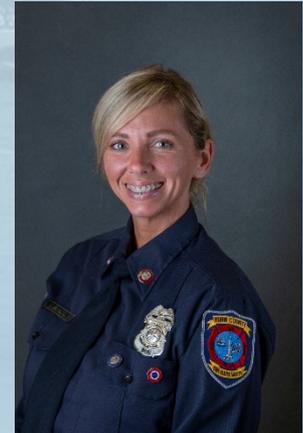

Northern
District
Station

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

All Fire Stations are Equipped and Staffed to Ensure Advanced Life Support Capability

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

60% ALS (Advanced Life Support)

- 40% Paramedics (ALS)
- 20% EMT Intermediates (ALS)
- 40% EMT (BLS)

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Ongoing Professional Development:

- Advanced EMS Continuing Education
- Advanced Cardiac Life Support
- Basic Cardiac Life Support/CPR
- Rapid Sequence Induction
- ALS/BLS Practical evolutions

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Medical Equipment

Video Laryngoscope

Powerload Stretchers

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Medical Equipment

Advanced Cardiac
Monitor/Defibrillators

Automated
Chest Compression Devices

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

EMS related responses: ~70% of incidents

Return of Spontaneous Circulation Rate
(ROSC)—exceptional

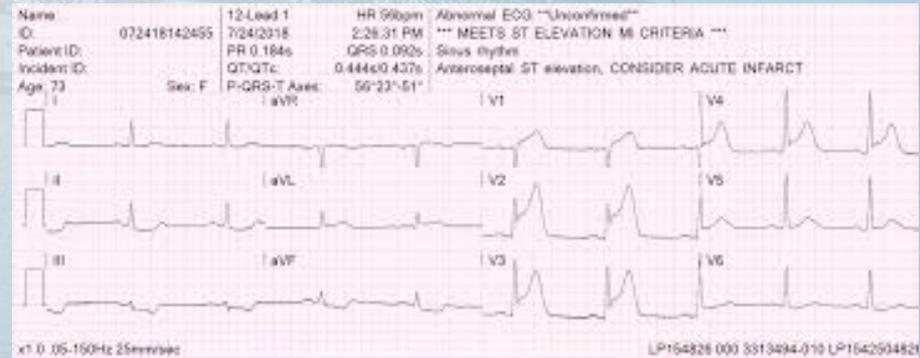

ST Elevation Myocardial Infarction
(STEMI)—exceptional

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Collaboration with hospitals/EMS in region:

- STEMI Alert
- Stroke Alert
- Blood Draw Program
- Opioid Task Force

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Community/County/Department/Collaboration:

- Stop the Bleed/Active Threat Response/Hands Only CPR
- County Staff “On Spot” Demonstrations/Learning
- AED’s located throughout the County
- York County School Division Classes

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Greater Williamsburg HEARTSafe Alliance

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Specialized Capabilities that Support EMS Needs

VA1DMAT

Tech Rescue & VATF2

HRMMRS

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Specialized Capabilities that Support EMS Needs

Dive Team
Maritime Incident
Response Team

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Specialized Capabilities that Support EMS Needs

ROVER
(Drone)
Team

ERT (SWAT) Medics

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Public Safety Partners

- 9-1-1 Staff
- Sheriff's Office Personnel
- Fire and Life Safety Members

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

American Heart Association

Mission Lifeline

Advised of Silver Recognition for 2018

- 12 lead Acquisition
- Percentage of Hospital Notifications
- EMS Transport to Intervention Facility
- Arrival of STEMI to Intervention time

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

National EMS Week

Beyond the Call

May 19-25, 2019

EMS  STRONG

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond

Committed Community supporting
State of the Art Equipment along with
Well Developed Processes
and
Great Personnel who are
Competent, Caring, Compassionate equals
Quality Services

Fire and Life Safety: EMS, Ready to Respond Thank You!

