Status Update 3/27/2020: The latest from York County

Fishing Piers are open; Waste Management Center is open

This listing contains status updates from the week

March 27, 2020

New Information re: County Programs/Services

Fishing Piers

York County's fishing piers remain open. However, signage is posted reminding visitors to practice social distancing and ensure that no more than 10 individuals are on the pier at a time. York County's fishing piers are located at the Yorktown Waterfront, Back Creek Park, Wormley Creek Boat Landing, Roger Smith Boat Landing, and New Quarter Park.

Waste Management Center

The Waste Management Center is open for the drop-off of trash and recyclables; the VPPSA Compost Facility is open. Citizens are asked to keep their household chemicals until the next household chemical collection event can be held. The list of events will be updated at www.vppsa.org. Please review the list of items that are accepted at our York County Drop-Off Center before bringing items that cannot be recycled.

Recap of County Programs/Services

County Offices/Facilities/Meetings

- Offices, facilities, playgrounds, and libraries are closed to the public. Staff is continuing to provide services to the community. Citizens are encouraged to visit the website – www.yorkcounty.gov – and utilize online payments, customer service requests, and more.
- The Board of Supervisors meeting scheduled for April 7 is cancelled.

- The Planning Commission meeting scheduled for April 8 is cancelled.
- Building Safety staff have implemented procedures for permit submissions, construction plan review, permit issuance, and field inspections. Visit www.yorkcounty.gov/buildingsafety for details.
- The Central Purchasing office staff will accept sealed Bids and Proposals that are delivered to the Finance Building, 120 Alexander Hamilton Boulevard, in Yorktown.

Commissioner of the Revenue

As previously announced, the National Park Service's Civil War Weekend, Victory at Yorktown 10K/5K/1Mile Family Fun Rn, and Ferrari Invasion are all cancelled.

Voter Registration

- The Voter Registrar's office, like all County offices/buildings, remains closed to the public. The Voter Registrar encourages voters to register or update their address online at www.elections.virginia.gov/citizen-portal. Individuals without access to the Internet may call (757) 890-3440 to request an application be mailed to them. Once completed, the form may be returned via mail to York County Voter Registrar, P.O. Box 451, Yorktown VA 23690. For additional details, visit www.yorkcounty.gov/voting.

Waste Management Update

- The drop-off center and VPPSA Compost Facility are open.
- York County's Waste Management Division has seen an increase in the amount of household trash being collected this week. Our contracted trash collection provider, Republic Services, is working later each day to ensure all collections are complete. Residents are asked to leave their containers at the curbside on their collection day until their trash is picked up.
- Citizens are reminded not to flush items that cannot be flushed. This includes "flushable" wipes, hygiene products, paper towels, tissues, cat litter, fats/oils/grease, etc.
- The Keep American Beautiful group, along with York County Waste Management and Beautification Committee, ask everyone to refrain from community cleanup events during this time due to the Governor's order for social distancing and the ban on groups of more than 10 people.
- The Tire Recycling Event scheduled for April 18 has been cancelled.
- The Shred Event scheduled in conjunction with the April 25 National Drug Take Back has been cancelled.

York-Poquoson Virginia Cooperative Extension

- Master Gardener events are cancelled through the end of May, including Annual Plant Sale, Earth Day events, Library Talks, etc. For complete information, call (757) 890-4940.
