Jeremy Watts: Compassion

Jeremy Watts is the 2020 recipient of the Outstanding Youth Award for Compassion. A senior at Tabb High, Jeremy is an Honor Roll student and year around athlete who shows compassion and care in everything he does. Jeremy always makes time for others, and has served in a variety of individual volunteer projects or with Tabb's Key Club and Beta Club. He has raked leaves and shoveled snow for elderly neighbors and helped with events and visited with residents at a local retirement community. Jeremy has assisted with the Top Soccer program for children with special needs, volunteered at the Tabb Library, and helped paint a peninsula Boys and Girls Club gymnasium. He is also a Children's Service leader at his church.

Jeremy is widely appreciated for his genuine heart of concern and compassion for everyone around him. His Grandfather and co-nominator, Robert McDowell, Jr., remembers how even at a young age, Jeremy was always sensitive and drawn towards those schoolmates who were lonely or even shunned by others.

Co-nominator Tamla Hughes, Jeremy's English teacher, shares that Jeremy tries to get all involved and included in class discussions. She marvels at what a bridge-builder he is, and how he sincerely respects others' opinions. School Counselor Mr. Bradley Williams relates how different students going through rough times have mentioned Jeremy's name as someone who always looked out for them.
