Ahoy, Mateys! Maritime History Comes Alive in Yorktown Saturday!

- Are you in the mood for some seafood? Want to chat with pirates? How about joining the re-enactment of the 1774 Yorktown Tea Party? If you answered “yes” to any of these, join us tomorrow (11/14) from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Riverwalk Landing for the Maritime Market! Purchase some of the best seafood in the area from favorites like Shore Bites, Coastal Thirst, Salty Bottom Blues Oyster Farm, and Kathi’s Clam Chowder. Enjoy living demonstrations, shop nautical-inspired art, and beware of pirates. Loose Cannon Company’s Pirate Encampment near the fountain is the setting for telling tales of seafaring life. Around noon, join us at the Freight Shed before marching to the Riverwalk Landing Pier to throw tea into the York River as a recreation of the 1774 event. (Please wear a face mask and practice social distancing). A Maritime exhibit, real blacksmith in action, and more make this market a highlight of the season. Board of Supervisors Tuesday, Nov. 17 Meeting to be Remote

- The Board of Supervisors' November 17 meeting will be held remotely. There are two public hearing items on the agenda as well as a comment period during which citizens may speak. The agenda lists phone lines that are open for public comment on both hearings and for remarks on any topic. The meeting begins at 6 p.m. and will be broadcast live on WYCG-TV (Cox 46, Verizon 38) and online.

One Application on Planning Commission Agenda for Wednesday, Nov. 18

- The Planning Commission meeting scheduled for 7 p.m. next Wednesday has one item on the agenda: A requested amendment to the York County Zoning Map to rezone approximately 376 acres of land located along Fenton Mill Road/Newman Road/Barlow Road from Rural Residential and Limited Business to Planned Development Residential. This meeting will be held in the Board Room of York Hall where in-person comments are welcomed. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. Seating in the Board Room is limited to allow for social distancing and will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Those in attendance are asked to wear a face covering except when addressing the Planning Commission. Depending on attendance, some individuals may need to wait outside until their turn to speak or space is available indoors. For additional details, please visit the Planning website.

Dept. of Public Works Reminds You . . .

- 2020's last Household Chemical/Computer Recycling event in York County is tomorrow (11/14) from 8 a.m. to noon at the County's Operations Center off Goodwin Neck Road.
