Get a Jumpstart on Holiday Shopping During Yorktown's Annual Art Stroll!

Sept 15, 2021

Marvel at some pretty amazing talent on Sunday, September 26 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. when close to 50 regional artists descend on Riverwalk Landing to display their work at the Yorktown Waterfront. Visitors will find a wide range of art for sale including oil, acrylic and watercolor paintings; glass; drawings; photography; jewelry; pottery; fiber art; handmade soap and woodwork.

Not only is the public invited to visit the artists and learn more about their inspiration, but they can also participate in an annual community painting—a blank canvas set out for attendees to complete.

The talent extends up the hill onto Main Street where On the Hill Gallery will be featuring a special display of new artists. Just down Main Street, where it meets Ballard Street, the Gallery at York Hall will feature Historian Chris Bonin's Revolutionary War artwork and he will be doing book signings for Virginia in the War of 1812 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

This event is free and open to the public. Guests can enjoy a special musical performance from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. by Audio Portrait, an acoustic harmony trio that covers songs from the 60s through today.

Many Historic Yorktown restaurants are open both during and after the event including Ben & Jerry's, Carrot Tree, Larry's, Mobjack Bay Coffee Roasters, Riverwalk Restaurant, Umi Sushi, Water Street Grille, Yorktown Pub. Visitors can also enjoy a sunset sail on the York River by purchasing a ticket to the Schooner Alliance following the conclusion of the event.

Free parking is available on the lower level of the Riverwalk Landing Parking Terrace (and upper level if routine maintenance project has been completed), York Hall, York-Poquoson Courthouse, County Administration Building, and other designated public parking lots in town. The Yorktown Trolley will start its runs early that morning to provide complimentary service from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This event is held rain or shine.

This free event is jointly sponsored by the Yorktown Arts Foundation and York County. Special thanks to the York County Arts Commission for its sponsorship.
