Come Celebrate the 241st Victory at Yorktown!

Join in the fun next Wednesday, October 19, and commemorate the 1781 Siege of Yorktown and the British surrender to the combined American and French forces in the last major battle of the Revolutionary War. Yorktown Day events include wreath-laying ceremonies, a parade down Main Street, patriotic exercises at the Victory Monument, and tours of historic sites.

Local museums are open, including the American Revolution Museum at Yorktown, Watermen's Museum, and York County Historical Museum in York Hall. Complete event details are in the press release. Vehicle access to town will be limited that morning due to Yorktown Day activities. The trolley runs from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. (modified 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.). Information on road closures and trolley schedule is available on the County's website.

Tour U.S. Naval Boats and Shop Market Days

Visit Riverwalk Landing tomorrow (10/15) and take a free deck tour of visiting Yard Patrol boats from the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis. Two boats docked at the Riverwalk Landing piers are open to tours from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. While you're at the waterfront, shop Yorktown Market Days from 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. and purchase goodies from 30+ vendors that will keep you warm when cool weather approaches. Stock up on soup or clam chowder, perk yourself up with coffee or sweet treats, or start your holiday shopping early by purchasing jewelry or artwork from one of our talented vendors.

“Write on Track” and Yoga Adult Programs at Tabb Library

Get ready for National Novel Writing Month by attending Write on Track: A Crash Course to Outlining Your Next Novel on Tuesday (10/18) from 6 to 8 p.m. Join in on an evening of all things novel prep: the importance of an outline, the ins and outs of making one that works for you, and even some activities you can bring back to your writing desk at home. Register for this writing program on the Library's site. The Library also offers Evening Yoga from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday (10/20). Patrons can improve their core strength and flexibility. No registration is required for Yoga. Be sure to stay up-to-date on library programming for all ages by signing up for the newsletters!

Perfect Weather Forecast Tomorrow for Movies in the Parks!

Expecto Patronum! “Harry Potter and the Sorcerer’s Stone” is showing tomorrow (10/15) at the McReynolds Athletic Complex (412 Sports Way). The movie begins at sunset (around 6:30 p.m.) and is free! Movie fans are invited to New Quarter Park (1000 Lakeshead Drive) on October 29 for “The Nightmare Before Christmas.” Both of these features are perfect for the Halloween season. Concessions are available and moviegoers are asked to bring blankets or lawn chairs for seating. In case of inclement weather, call the event hotline at 757-890-3501 (ext. 10 for the MAC, ext. 35 for NQP).

Yorktoberfest Coming to Riverwalk Landing October 23
